The Ecological Society of America

OFFICERS FOR 1965

President, Bostwick H. Ketchum, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution, Woods Hole, Massachusetts.

Vice-President, Robert B. Platt, Department of Biology, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia.

Secretary, Stanley I. Auerbach, Radiation Ecology, Oak Ridge National Laboratory, Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

Treasurer, Ralph W. Kelting, Department of Biological Science, Kansas State College, Pittsburg, Kansas.

AIMS

The Ecological Society of America was founded in 1915 for the purpose of giving unity to the study of organisms in relation to environment, as a means of furthering intercourse between persons who are approaching widely different groups of organisms from closely related points of view, for the stimulation of ecological research, and to assist the development of the utilities which may be served by ecological principles.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to persons who are interested in the advancement of ecology or its applications, and to those who are engaged in any aspect of the study of organisms in relation to environment.

The following classes of membership are recognized:

Associate Members, annual dues, $2.00.
Active Members, annual dues, $12.00.
Sustaining Members, annual dues, $18.00.

Active and Sustaining Members receive Ecology, for which not less than $8.50 of the dues are set aside. Six dollars of the dues of Sustaining Members are applied as the annual subscription to Ecological Monographs, the quarterly journal for longer articles. Members in arrears for dues will, on payment, be supplied with back numbers so far as they are available, but the journals do not hold themselves responsible for reserving back numbers in anticipation of the payment of back dues.

All members receive the Bulletin of the Ecological Society of America, issued by the Secretary in March, June, October, and December. It contains announcements of meetings and excursions of the Society, abstracts of papers, programs, items of current interest to members, and occasional membership lists.

Associate Members do not receive Ecology or Ecological Monographs and are not eligible for office, but may become members in any one of the above classes upon the payment of the appropriate dues.

Active and Sustaining Members may obtain the journal Animal Behavior at the special rate of $3.00 per year by sending a check to John A. King, Department of Zoology, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan. Make the check payable to Animal Behavior.

Application blanks for membership may be obtained from the Secretary, to whom all correspondence concerning membership should be addressed. Checks accompanying membership application should be made payable to the Ecological Society of America.
